

The Do-Not-Call of the State of New Jersey should be left standing as is. It has put some teeth into the law which is so desperately needed.

Perhaps the FCC should implement the New Jersey version of Do-Not-Call across the federal board.

Thank you,

Yehuda Shain